

Moving to Alberta?

Moving to any new place can be very exciting (especially when your destination is Alberta). Truth is that relocating can be a difficult task for anyone and we would like to help in the transition of moving yourself or your vehicles to Alberta. Here is what you need to have from your existing Province or Country to get your Alberta Insurance.

Before you move to Alberta:

Please obtain the following and bring with you or have the information faxed to our office at 1-866-678-9961 within Canada or email to [mailto: getquote@riverstoneinsurance.ca?subject=New to Alberta - Looking for Insurance quote](mailto:getquote@riverstoneinsurance.ca?subject=New to Alberta - Looking for Insurance quote)

1. Drivers Abstract for the last 3 years for all drivers on vehicles. (Your driving record of speeding tickets, convictions and suspensions).
2. Insurance History (Claims Experience Letter) for all drivers on vehicle(s) from current insurance company and any records available since you started driving.
3. Copy of current Drivers Licence for all drivers. If moving to Alberta permanently you will be required to change to an Alberta Licence. If move is temporary you can drive with your current Provincial or License of Country.
4. Copy of Current Insurance Policy (if available)

After you move to Alberta:

1. For vehicles brought into Alberta - Registries will require an "Out of Province Safety Inspection".
2. For vehicles purchased in Alberta that are older than 20 years will require a "Road Worthy Inspection".
3. Bank Account in Canada if you would like to have a payment plan.
Copy of Bank withdrawal form or void cheque.
4. Alberta Registries will require proof of Insurance before you can register any vehicle in Alberta. Proof of Insurance is a copy of your pink card after you have arranged for your auto coverage
Riverstone Insurance can help make your move a pleasant experience.

"Knowledgeable", "Welcoming" and "Professional".

These are just a few of the words our customers use to describe us. At Riverstone we take the time up front to understand your situation - personal and business - from a holistic perspective, so that we can advise you on how best to protect what matters most to you and your family. Our goal is to provide outstanding service and customized advice that will give you security and peace of mind.